

This is my second election as part of the 12 Good Men, and I am honoured to stand alongside a team that has worked tirelessly over the past term to strengthen and transform the Singapore Recreation Club.

I have had the privilege of serving on the Club's Management Committee, contributing across both the Legal and Finance Sub-Committees. Through this experience, I have developed a deep appreciation for how strong governance, financial discipline, and collective stewardship underpin a well-run and trusted club. These principles must remain at the core of SRC as we continue its transformation.

Professionally, I am a finance and investment professional with experience spanning private equity, strategic development, and corporate growth. I currently serve as a Partner at a Singapore-based private equity fund, and have previously held senior investment roles working closely with a diverse range of stakeholders. I have also served on company boards and committees, contributing to strategy, governance, and audit oversight.

Personally, my sporting interests lie in golf and racquet sports. I believe that fostering a vibrant and inclusive environment at a club as special as SRC requires nurturing sporting excellence, encouraging participation across all age groups, and remaining relevant to younger generations—while preserving the heritage that defines us.

The past term has seen meaningful progress through the Club's transformation initiatives, which will continue into the coming term. These efforts are not without challenges, particularly in a more uncertain economic environment. It is therefore important that we remain disciplined and responsible in our decision-making, balancing member experience with long-term sustainability.

If elected, my commitment is straightforward: to serve with diligence and integrity, uphold strong governance standards, and contribute constructively alongside fellow members of the 12 Good Men. Together, we will build on the progress made, see through the ongoing transformation, and continue enhancing the overall club experience for all members.

I ask for your support and the opportunity to contribute towards strengthening and future-proofing the Singapore Recreation Club for generations to come.
